United States Copyright Office
c/o: Paul Perkins; Shira Perlmutter
c/o: LEGAL DEPARTMENT
copyright.gov

United States Copyright Office
c/o: Kimberly Figel Benoit
c/o: OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL
loc.gov

Friday | January 16, 2026 | 9:25AM EST

Greetings!...

It appears that since the year of 2023, several of my Deposits have been severed from the actual Copyright Registrations, and, this, I'm afraid, appears to be in stark contrast to the law. On more than one occasion, I've been pressured, seduced, and tricked into believing that, somehow, I'm required to oblige to the Copyright Office's request to sever my Deposits from the Copyright Registration, or, else, according to them, the work hasn't a chance of Copyright Registration. At other times, it appears, that the Copyright Office has unilaterally decided to sever my Deposits from the Copyright Registrations due to my using the word "Episode" in lieu of the word "Chapter", and, this, I'm afraid, appears also to be in stark contrast to the actual laws that I'm currently aware of.

The actions of the Copyright Office and the Library of Congress have caused me more anxiety, panic, despair, etc., that I've been unable to fully think straight at all times and function without somewhat confusion. As far as I'm concerned, the Copyright Office and the Library of Congress have abused me, taken advantage of me, ignored all appropriate laws that I've cited, possibly others, acted with malfeasance, violated my Constitutional rights, and so forth, and, because of such, I have no other choice but to pursue all of my concerns in the appropriate Court at law.

Should the following address not be considered the correct address for Service of Process, please notify me immediately @ Dandridge.Barnett@gmail.com or by simply replying to this email:

Library of Congress
U.S. Copyright Office
c/o: OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
101 Independence Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20559-6000

P.S. All requests by the Copyright Office in stark opposition of the law serve as a request to violate the laws that presently exist.

/s/Krista Dandridge-Barnett
Friday, January 16, 2026, 9:25AM EST

Gmail Krista Dandridge-Barnett <[redacted]>

Letter to the Library of Congress and Copyright Office - January 16, 2026

1 message

Krista Dandridge-Barnett <[redacted]> Fri, Jan 16, 2026 at 6:36 AM
Bcc: [redacted]

Immediate time, day and date: Friday, January 16, 2026, 9:36AM EST

United States Copyright Office
c/o: Paul Perkins; Shira Perlmutter
c/o: LEGAL DEPARTMENT
copyright.gov

United States Copyright Office
c/o: Kimberly Figel Benoit
c/o: OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL
loc.gov

Friday | January 16, 2026 | 9:25AM EST

Greetings!...

It appears that since the year of 2023, several of my Deposits have been severed from the actual Copyright Registrations, and, this, I'm afraid, appears to be in stark contrast to the law. On more than one occasion, I've been pressured, seduced, and tricked into believing that, somehow, I'm required to oblige to the Copyright Office's request to sever my Deposits from the Copyright Registration, or, else, according to them, the work hasn't a chance of Copyright Registration. At other times, it appears, that the Copyright Office has unilaterally decided to sever my Deposits from the Copyright Registrations due to my using the word "Episode" in lieu of the word "Chapter", and, this, I'm afraid, appears also to be in stark contrast to the actual laws that I'm currently aware of.

The actions of the Copyright Office and the Library of Congress have caused me more anxiety, panic, despair, etc., that I've been unable to fully think straight at all times and function without somewhat confusion. As far as I'm concerned, the Copyright Office and the Library of Congress have abused me, taken advantage of me, ignored all appropriate laws that I've cited, possibly others, acted with malfeasance, violated my Constitutional rights, and so forth, and, because of such, I have no other choice but to pursue all of my concerns in the appropriate Court at law.

Should the following address not be considered the correct address for Service of Process, please notify me immediately @ [redacted] or by simply replying to this email:

Library of Congress
U.S. Copyright Office
c/o:* OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
101 Independence Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20559-6000

P.S. All requests by the Copyright Office in stark opposition of the law serve as a request to violate the laws that presently exist.

/s/Krista Dandridge-Barnett
Friday, January 16, 2026, 9:25AM EST

'`~Respectfully,

Krista Dandridge-Barnett

'`~LEGAL NOTICE AND CONFIDENTIALITY DISCLAIMER

This Legal Notice and Confidentiality Disclaimer obligation shall apply to this communication and to any and all subsequent emails, replies, forwards, or other transmissions, whether or not this Legal Notice and Confidentiality Disclaimer is expressly restated therein:

This communication and any attachments hereto (collectively, the “Communication”) constitute privileged, proprietary, and confidential information that is the exclusive property, unless otherwise noted, of Ms. Krista Dandridge-Barnett. It is furnished solely for the intended recipient(s) identified herein. Any unauthorized interception, access, review, use, reproduction, dissemination, distribution, or disclosure of this Communication, in whole or in part, is expressly prohibited and may give rise to civil and criminal penalties under applicable federal and state laws, including but not limited to the Electronic Communications Privacy Act (18 U.S.C. § 2510 et seq.) and related privacy statutes.

If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any retention, duplication, disclosure, or reliance on the contents of this Communication is strictly forbidden. If this Communication has been received in error, immediately notif[redacted] delete all copies from your system, and permanently refrain from any form of use or dissemination.

All communications, whether written, electronic, or verbal, with Ms. Dandridge-Barnett are confidential and legally protected. Under no circumstances shall any conversation, consultation, or meeting—whether by telephone, in person, or through any electronic means—be audio recorded, video recorded, transcribed, monitored, “speaker-phoned,” live-streamed, or otherwise captured, replicated, or transmitted without the express prior written authorization of Ms. Krista Dandridge-Barnett. Any such recording or interception, absent written consent, constitutes a direct violation of privacy laws and may be subject to immediate legal action.

No portion of this message, including attachments, may be reproduced, distributed, stored, or transmitted in any form or by any means without the prior written consent of Ms. Dandridge-Barnett. The omission or absence of this notice from any subsequent communication does not constitute a waiver of confidentiality, ownership, or privilege.

Nothing herein shall be construed as legal advice, representation, or a binding legal undertaking.

This disclaimer exists solely for the protection, preservation, and enforcement of Ms. Krista Dandridge-Barnett’s personal, legal, and proprietary rights. Under no circumstance shall this notice, in whole or in part, be construed, cited, invoked, or otherwise used against Ms. Dandridge-Barnett in any legal, contractual, administrative, professional, or personal capacity. Any attempt to reinterpret, repurpose, or apply this disclaimer to diminish, challenge, or undermine Ms. Dandridge-Barnett’s rights, position, or interests is expressly invalid, void, and without legal effect.

KRISTA DANDRIDGE-BARNETT IS NOT AN ATTORNEY.

THIS EMAIL AND/OR ANY ATTACHMENT[S] IS/ARE CONFIDENTIAL.

Letter to the Library of Congress and the Copyright Office - January 16, 2026 .pdf
63K